SENEY SALE IS A SUCCESS.

Big Figures on the Last Night of the Salling Change Its Fortunes.

MILLET'S "WAITING," $40,500.

One Hundred and Six Works of the Third Session Fetch $360,700.

GRAND TOTAL, $664,000.

Success has crowned the apparently perilous fortunes of the Senev sale.

It closed last night in the Assembly Rooms of the Madison Square Garden before a large audience with a record for 307 works of $664,000, and so there is little doubt but that Mr. Sensy made money.

The 106 examples sold last evening fetched $360,700, an average of $3,400. The average of the sale is $2,160, against the $4,176 of the second Spencer sale, whose sixty-eight works brought $284,025; $3,688 of the Mary J. Morgan sale, whose total for 240 paintings was $885,300, and $2,365 for the Stowart sale, whose 217 paintings fetched $513,750.

Millet's "Waiting," amid much excitement and applause, sold last night for $40,500, the highest price of the sale, to M. Knoedler & Co., who, it is supposed, bought it for Mr. James D. Rockefeller, who owns the "Grafting." which may be called a companion piece, or possibly for Mr. Charles T. Yerkes, of Chicago.

The first bid, of $20,000, was made by J. B. Randolph, an employé of the American Art Associa-tion, who was undoubtedly bidding on an order from Mr. C. P. Huntington, and made his last bid Knaus' "The Old Witch," brought $12,600, the next highest figure, from Mr. John W. Aitkin, and P. A. B. Weidener, of Philadelphia, on his first bid of $12,000 secured the superb "Hounds" of Troyon.

GOOD FIGURES.

The next highest figure, $11,100, was paid by M. Montaignae, the Paris dealer, for another Troyon, the "Sheep in a Forest." J. B. Randolph—it is supposed for Mr. Huntington—secured Delacroix's "Tiger and Serpent" at $11,000, and Dupre's "Moonlight" at $7,000.

Knaus' beautiful "The Child's Funeral," formerly in the Edouard Andre collection, went for $10,000 on a single bid to Mr. John W. Aitkin, and M. Montaignae paid $9,100 for Dupre's "Sunset," Diaz's "Virgin and Child" went to Mr. Aitkin at $8,000.

Diaz's "Virgin and Child" went to Mr. Altkin at $5,000.

Meissonier's "Deliberation" was bought by M. Montaignae for Mr. James F. Sutton at $7,000. Shreyer's "The Wallachian Port Carriza" went to the Layton Art Gallery of Milwaukee for $5,000, Mr. Edward Stokes being the near highest bidder. The Corcoran Gallery of Art of Washington secured Isabey's "The Wedding Festival" at $3,250 and Cazin's "Moonlight in Holland" at $3,625.

Applause greeted Jules Siewart's "The Hunt Bail," for which Mr. Franklin Murphy gave $3,700, the highest price paid for any picture by an American in the sale.

It was announced by Auctioneer Kirby during the sale that he would sell at its close two works not in the catalogue, and owned by Mr. Serey, the proceeds of which would be donated by him to the Washington memorial arch fund. The committee had asked Mr. Seney during the exhibition to give one day's receipts for the fund. For various reasons he preferred to give the pictures.

The works were a marine by Alexander Harrison and a landscape by A. H. Wyant. They fetched $1,550. The Harrison was sold to Mr. A. L. Barber, of Washington, for $1,150, and the Wyant to Reichard & Co. for $400.

WANT A CAST OF THE STATUE. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 13, 1891.—An application was received by Governor McKinney to-day from Mrs. Justice Field, Mrs. Dixon, of Rhode Island; Mrs. King, of New York, and Miss Matoaca Gay, of Richmond, for permission to have taken a cast of the Houdon statue of Washington in the rotunda of the Capitol.

These ladies are a committee of the Washington Statue Association and their object in trying to procure a cast is to have a statue made for presentation to the French government. The Governor replied that upon consultation with prominent citizens of Richmond he found that taking a cast would be a dangerous and difficult operation, and that application for privilege had been made to previous Governors and refused, although it had been granted to Hubard in 1853. He therefore referred the ladies to the General Assembly.

Assembly.

The petition was indorsed by Senators Daniel and Barbour and Congressmen Lester, Buchanan, Edmunds, Tucker, O'Ferrall and Lee.

The Houdon statue is the most valuable piece of sculpture in this country, and there is good authority for stating that had Hubard realized the danger to it involved in his taking a cast he would never have done so.

A VERY WISE CHOICE. CHICAGO, Feb. 13, 1891 .- The World's Fair directors have closed a contract with Augustus St. Gaudens, the New York artist and sculptor, to remove to Chicago. His duties in connection with the fair will be to advise concerning statuary, fountains and general symbolism and ornamentation.

OBITUARY.

ALEXANDER H. H. STUART.

A despatch from Staunton, Va., announces the death yesterday of Alexander H. H. Stuart, Secretary of the Interior in President Fillmore's Cabinet and a member of the Peabody Educational Board. The generation in which Mr. Stuart was a once prominent figure has nearly all passed away, and few of the people of this country to-day know much about this quiet old gentleman who in his time had much to do with shaping the polithis time had much to do with snaping the political destinies of the men of fifty years ago who were foremost in the public affairs of this nation. He was a member of Congress in 1841, and while in the House formed a strong friendship with Millard Fillmore, who was then representing the Buffalo district on the floor. When the New York stateman became President he invited Mr. Stuart to a seat in the Cabinet, and he became Secretary of the Interior, serving until the end of that administration.

the Interior, serving until the end of that administration.

He had always been a strong advocate of the doctrines of the Know Nothing party, and fought its battles in Virginia with the old time; democrats of the Dominion. After he left the Cabinet he served in the Legislature of the State, and during the war dropped out offsight, but when the Rebellion was suppressed he appeared one day like the ghost of a former generation and claimed a seat in the House of Representatives in 1865. But the new men of that day had naver heard of the white haired statesman, and they refused to admit him. Since that time he has lived quietly in his nome at Staunton, enjoying the comforts of a placid, well preserved and sturdy old age. He was born in 1807.

WILLIAM A. PULLMAN.

Mr. William A. Pullman, president of the Seaboard National Bank, at No. 18 Broadway, died in the Buckingham Hotel yesterday morning of peritonitis. He was at his office as usual on Monday, though he complained of feeling ill. The same evening he took to his bed. The disease of which he died developed itself on Thursday. Mr. Pullman was born in Chantauqua county, N. Y., forty-six years ago. Previous to taking up his residence in this city, nine years ago, he was the working treasurer of the Standard Oil Company in the Pennsylvania regions. The bank of which he was president was organized by him and some of his associates in the Standard Oil Company upon his arrival in this city. He was its first and until his death its only president. He was also a director in the Produce Exchange, Safe Deposit Company and a member of the Manhattan and several other clubs. He was married and leaves a widow, but no children. The directors of the bank met yesterday and passed suitable resolutions regarding his death. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Mr. Pullman was a member of Dr. Robert Collyer's church. usual on Monday, though he complained

NEWFOUNDLAND ANGRY AND DEFIANT.

Resolutions Passed by the Legislature Chiding England for Breach of Faith Regarding Reciprocity.

ANNEXATION STRONGLY ADVOCATED.

Calling Upon the British Government to Ratify the Convention Arranged with the United States It Had Agreed To.

St. Johns. N. F., Feb. 13, 1891.-Immediately after the reading of the Governor's speech at the opening of the Legislature to-day Colonial Secretary Bond proposed resolutions reciting certain statements regarding the reciprocity negotiations which will cause a stir in Canada, the United States and England.

The resolutions were discussed with closed doors, during which several of the most notably conservative members expressed strong sentiments in favor of annexation and in condemna-tion of the unfriendly attitude of Canada.

The resolutions were supported by the opposition, and were passed unanimously and sent to the The preamble states that on July 8 the Newfound land delegates proposed to the British government that Newfoundland should be permitted, through Sir Julian Pauncefote, to negotiate a convention for reciprocal trade with the United States. On September 8 this proposal was acquiesced in and consent was given for a delegation to proceed to Washington to aid in said negotiations. On November 8 Colonial Secretary Bond was advised by the British government to return to Washington to conclude the negotiations. On December 16 a satisfactory convention was arranged and accepted on behalf of the United States government by Sec retary Blaine. Though strongly urged by the Newfoundland government the British government up to date has declined to ratify the convention.

The resolutions declare that the House views with profound disappointment and alarm the failure of Her Majesty's government to carry out its solemn obligations to the colony, and is aware of the interference of Canada in relation to this matter, and the House cannot fail to appreciate the same as a menace to the independence of the colony. The members emphatically protest against the interests of the colony being made subservient to those of the Dominion and regard the delay that has occurred in the ratification of the convention as entirely unjustifiable and evidencing an utter disregard for the prosperity and well being of the colony.

It is resolved that the delay occasioned by Her Majesty's government in ratifying the said convention is regarded by this Legislature as unfriendly to the colony and calculated to permanently disturb the loyalty for which the colony has been remarkable.

It is further resolved that the Legislature most strongly urges Her Majesty's government to immediately fulfil its pledge to the colony by ratifying the said convention.

RECIPROCITY THE ISSUE.

Sr. John, N. B., Feb. 13, 1891.-The Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance, has issued his the policy of the government, and says it has repeatedly made propositions to the United States regarding trade reciprocity. He contrasts the government's policy with that of the opposition on this point. The latter, he says, is unrestricted reciprocity, while that of the government is to meet the United States in a friendly way and negotiate with them on just and equitable principles. Reciprocity with the United States he acknowledges to be the paramount issue.

LAURIER ON ANNEXATION. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

MONTREAL, Feb. 13, 1891 .- Wilfred Laurier, the leader of the opposition, was interviewed to-day on the annexation story raised by conservatives against him. He said:-

"The cry is simply absurd. I never saw any statement from the lips of those men, who are so loyal at this moment, setting forth in what way unrestricted reciprocity would lead to annexation. If we have unrestricted reciprocity the Canadian people will then, as now, have the right of vote. They can exercise it either for or against annexa-

Iney can exercise it either for or against annexation.

"I suppose the meaning of the objection, unexpressed though it be, is that unrestricted reciprocity would make the Canadian people so prosperous that, not satisfied with commercial alliance, they would at once sigh for a political union. If that be objection I must confess that from previous experience I think it is well taken from a tory point of view. If they are afraid that they cannot resist Yankee blandishments it may be so, but so far as the grits are concerned their loyalty does not spring from the stomach, but from the heart. They will not swerve from their allegiance and what they consider the path of duty from any mercenary considerations.

"As far as the liberals of all shades of opinion are concerned I have no fear."

NOTES OF CANADIAN POLITICS. TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 13, 1891 .- Among notable nominations to the Dominion Parliament to-day were John Charlton, in North Norfolk; Hon. David Mills, in Bothwell; Dr. Landerken, in South

Gray, and James McMullen, in North Wellington. All the above are liberals.

The following conservatives were nominated:—
Hon. McKenzie Bowell for Minister of Customs in North Hastings, and J. C. Patterson in North Essex; Daiton McCarthy, in North Simcoe and Hon. George A. Kirkpatrick, ex-Speaker, in Frontense.

Hon. Alex Mackenzie, ex-Premier of Canada, has tense.

Hon. Alex Mackenzie, ex-Premier of Canada, has been renominated to represent East York in the Dominion Parliament. Mr. Mackenzie is in full accord with the policy of the reform party.

Hon. Edward Blake, Minister of Justice in the Mackenzie government (reform), has declined renomination to represent East Durham in the Dominion Parliament, and in a letter to his constituents says he is determined to retire from public life.

The report current yesterday in Ottawa that Sir John Macdenald was seriously ill is without foundation. The Premier's health is not of the best, but he is not suffering from any special aliment. He will speak at Hamilton on Wednesday evening.

A great liberal demonstration was held here this evening in the Auditorium. Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, said that the only way of relieving the farmers of Ontario was by securing unrestricted reciprocity with the United States. Sir Richard Cartwright said that in calling for an election Sir John Macdonald thought he would prevent the full effect of Mr. Blaine's letter, which had destroyed ruthlessly the web that the government was weaving for the people of Canada. web that the government was weaving for the peo-

Recorder Smyth told Bozdeck that he was a scoundrel, a ruffian and a coward of the worst kind to strike Miss Koovick as he had done, and gave him the longest term he could—four years and ten months in State Prison.

Boxdeck had brutally knocked Miss Koovick down because she favored giving up the strike in the factory of Louis F. Fromme, on Fifty-second street, where both worked.

DISASTERS.

LONDON, Feb 13-The State line steamer State of Alabama, Lewis, from Glasgow Jan 14 for New York, which put back to Queenstown short of coal and hadly dam-aged and subsequently proceeded to Greenock, is discharging her earge, much of which was damaged by the sea. Her carge consisted principally of tin plates. Ship George Thempson (8r), Barneson, from Port Blakely Decd, which arrived at Sydney, NSW, Feb 13, met with heavy weather on the passage. She is leaking. Two hundred and eighty bales of cotton bave been landed from the bark George Supplicien (Ger), Dade, from Wilmington, NO, which was beached at Bromerhaven with her bow stove and afterward got off and arrived, safely in the harbor. Forty-flowed these might be picked over and made saleable, but the others are damaged throughout. It is expected that the remainder of the cargo is in the same condition.

Coroner Levy will hold an inquest in the case on Monday. Goldschmidt was a member of several mutual benefit societies. The funeral will take place from his late home, No. 232 East Houston street, on Sunday morning at ten of clock.

The pistol with which Langheime did the shooting and which was not supposed to have been loaded was found yesterday in Koenigsberger's
